

Trans Day of VISIBILITY
2023

THE NEW PRIDE
AGENDA

What is Trans
Day of

VISIBILITY?

Each year, the world pauses on March 31st to shine a light on the Transgender and Gender Non-Conforming Community worldwide. Unlike TDOR, the day is meant to be joyous and instead of focusing on only the struggles of the Trans community, it brings attention to the incredible people, accomplishments and additions that our Trans sibs make to the world each and everyday. It asks our communities to not just accept but celebrate our humanity and do so by fighting for us and besides for housing rights, discrimination protections, representation, healthcare and an end to hate and Anti-Trans legislation.

NEXT GENERATION MEN OF TRANSITION

www.ngmt18.com

Est. in 2018, Next Generation Men of Transition (NGMT18) quest was to establish an active support system, provide visibility, and create a community for men throughout their transitions. Each day we continue to establish everything we sought out to build; not only for the Rochester, NY Trans Masculine Community but communities nationwide.

NGMT is now followed by Men of Transition globally. We continue to break barriers, make history and stand on visibility for all Trans Masculine folks. Especially Black and Brown Trans Masculine folks.

NGMT hosts group meetings in Rochester, NY, as well as online via Zoom.

NGMT continues to provide support and visibility platforms for men of transition as we chose survival in order to live our authentic lives.

WAVE Women Inc. is an organization whose goal is to Empower, Support, Encourage, Inspire, Elevate the voices of, Promote visibility, Educate, Advocate, Fight for social justice, and better healthcare services.

WAVE provides mutual aid support for basic necessities, community resources, and brings hope to the underserved BIPOC Transgender and GNC individuals in our communities.

BRITTAN HARDGERS

NEXT GENERATION MEN OF TRANSITION

 BHardgers

 IAmBrittanHardgers

 www.ngmt18.com/founder

Educator, Activist, Advocate, Public Speaker, and 1st openly Black Transgender candidate for City Council in Western New York (Rochester, NY 2021). Hardgers vowed in 2018 to bring visibility to the Trans Masculine community of Rochester. Upon starting his own physical transition (FTM), Hardgers founded Next Generation Men of Transition which built another channel of national support for Trans Masc folks. Growing this brotherhood within the LGBTQ+ community provided many forms of support. Through NGMT, Hardgers facilitates support groups, mutual aid, emergency assistance, resources, social justice reform and education for and surrounding men of transition within organizations all over the country. Brittan has participated in many educational panels nationwide, including: Emory University, GEVA Theatre, University of Rochester, Rochester Public Defender's Office, Wind Stream, Aria Strategies and many more. Currently, Brittan is the VP of the Greater Rochester LGBTQ+ Political Caucus, CEO of W.A.V.E Women Inc, Co-Creative Director of Cover Design for Blaque/Out Magazine as well as the creator of its column, TRAN/s/. Brittan is also the self-published author of "Uniquely Made By You" Affirmation Journal. Hardgers delivered the keynote speech for the City of Rochester sponsored TDOR event in 2019 and hosted the event in 2020, 2021 & 2022. Since 2018, Brittan (NGMT) also continues to host an annual TDOV event on March 31st.

In honor of Trans Day of Remembrance 2022, Brittan created "Remember Me Now", a documentary uplifting Transgender voices across the nation. Brittan is currently the Patient Centered Care Officer/Ombudsperson at the University Of Rochester Medical Center.

"I have received numerous awards but my greatest award was given to myself, for living as authentically as possible. It is my duty to continually fight for "CHANGE" for current & future generations. I may not see the end result in my lifetime, but I can see the progression daily"
